What?

Genfest is a 2-day international festival of thousands of young people from all over the world. It's an amazing chance to get to know others, hear inspiring stories, and discover in practice how to 'bridge the gaps' that divide us.

Organised by young people of the Focolare Movement, which takes its inspiration from the words of the Gospel, 'May they all be one' (Jn 17:21), Genfest brings together people of all faiths & cultures.

"By living the Golden Rule ('treat others as you would like to be treated', Lk 6:31) ... unity will spread, solidarity will blossom, goods will be distributed more justly and the rainbow of peace will shine over the whole world which, in a few years, will be in your hands."

Chiara Lubich, founder of the Focolare Movement

Where?

The tenth Genfest is in Budapest, Hungary! Events will be taking place all round the city, with the Sports Arena taking centre stage for the climax.

Why?

Our Goal: to help bring about a united world – the greatest challenge of our times.

How do we start? By building unity with others in many different ways: between generations; between different ethnic groups; between those who have & those who don't; with those who suffer and are alone; caring for the environment; working for peace.
