

Order of Saint Augustine

Coming soon to London

A New Augustinian Lay Community

Would you like to live in a Catholic community with other young adults?

“The Augustinian ideal of community becomes a sign in this time of searching. We must open up new paths for the future: the sharing of goods, equality among all...”

Plus A New Augustinian Centre

Next to St. Augustine’s Church, Hammersmith, London

The centre will be a forum for volunteers and the lay community to work with youth and collaborate on social justice and peace projects

“...the inclusion of the marginalised and ethnic minorities, the exercise of authority as service, special attention to the weakest and the poor”.
